Rich in history and in diversity of members...

Berea Business & Professional Women (BPW) has established a long history of service and support for working women.

Berea BPW was chartered in 1945 and is still advocating for the working women of Berea and the surrounding communities. In fact, Berea BPW is comprised of women who live or work in neighborhoods all over the greater Cleveland area, including Berea, Brook Park, Middleburg Hts., North Olmsted, Olmsted Falls, Strongsville, North Royalton, Medina County and many others.

We are an organization that uniquely encompasses a wide array of professions and backgrounds.

It is an organization where you will find friends...and make connections.

Networking Opportunities. Every Berea BPW event affords you the opportunity to meet new women and learn more about your fellow BPW members. The diversity of our membership, which spans all occupations and includes retired members, provides a great way to make personal and professional connections.

Providing a multitude of benefits...

Monthly Meetings and Programs. Berea BPW meets the second Thursday of every month (excluding July and August) for networking, dinner and a variety of programs. Examples of past programs include, local business owner networking, a woman-run community restoration project; fitness, human trafficking, as well as, programs featuring donations to women.

Dual Membership. When you join Berea BPW, you automatically become a member of BPW/OHIO, our state organization and a part of BPW Foundation. Each provides its own benefits. That is a lot of value for your membership dollar.

An Informative Newsletter. Our monthly newsletter, the Aileron, is filled with upcoming events, new member information, committee actions, legislation updates and member highlights. The newsletter is a great way to stay in touch with all the activities of Berea BPW. You will also receive our state newsletter, the Ohio Business Women (OBW).

Membership Directory. Every member receives a membership directory which includes membership contact information, the schedule of programs, state and region officers, Berea BPW history, deadlines, BPW/OHIO information. You also receive the local's bylaws.

Involved in the community...

Safe and Sound. Berea BPW supports many projects that directly assist women, which presents a positive impact in the community. Berea BPW is a regular supporter of the Church Street Ministries, Domestic Violence Centers, Southwest General Health Center – SANE, and SCAN Hunger Center.

Community. The community is enhanced by our support of the local organizations. We are a member of the Berea Chamber of Commerce.

Legislation. Berea BPW encourages active participation in legislative issues by keeping our members aware of current legislative issues effecting women.

Young Careerist (YC) and Individual Development (ID). Berea BPW actively participates in BPW/OHIO YC and ID programs, offering leadership and public speaking training.

The results of Berea BPW's commitment to women's issues and to the community are far reaching and important to our mission as an organization.
